

Jean Parris

President, Congress of Black Women, Montreal Chapter

Love Thyself

Ms. Jean Parris is a nurse who has worked both in England and in Montreal. For several years, she has also been involved in the union movement. From 1979 to 1985, she was the president of her union at the Montreal Jewish General Hospital. Since 1985, she has been working at F.I.I.Q. (Fédération des Infirmières et Infirmiers du Québec) as an advisor on work relations. In 1990-91 she was a member of C.R.A.R.R. (Centre de Recherche et Action en Relation Raciales). Ms. Parris is also actively involved in her community where she has animated various information sessions on human rights.
